PensFlex

02/2024

Personal details of the insured person:         Employer:       Contract:         Sumame:       First name:         Street, no.:       Postcode/Town:         Date of birth:       Civil status:         The PensFlex Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following Order of Beneficiaries:         16.9       Non-registered life partners - including same sex partners - are entilled to a life partner pension and are treated the same as surviving spouses, provided that;         a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and       ib both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and         c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as couple for at least five yata; or if the partner was responsible for supporting one more joint children in accordance with Ar. 16.10 and 16.11 and         d) a ocresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person as a couple for at least five yata; or yubic widower's pension or life partner yeasion. The entiltement by a life partner yeasion.         10.1 an insured person dise, each child eligible for a pension - of provision has been made in the pension partner, ne eatifier however than at the end of the continued partner as east billing bills for a pension.         10.2 If an insured person dise, each child eligible for a pension - of provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitle to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is eastabilished with the death of the insured person opension	Pensions Order of Beneficiaries for non-registered Life Partners
Sumame:       First name:       Postcode/Town:         Date of birth:       Civil status:         The PensFlex Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following Order of Beneficiaries:         16.9       Non-registered life partners – including same sex partners – are entilled to a life partner pension and are treated the same as surviving spouses, provided that;         a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and       b) both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and         ()       avidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more join children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and         ()       a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and.         (a)       the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension straines, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partner's pension.         The entiltement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dise, marries, negatives a new partnership, enters a new life partner's pension.         16.10 find misured person dise, each child eligible for a pension or spiron stall able apply to the life partner's pension.       16.10 fan misured person as the end of the confinued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entildement to a disability pension.         <	Personal details of the insured person:
Street, no:       Postcode/Town:         Date of birth:       Civil status: The PensFlex Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following Order of Beneficiaries: 16.9       Non-registered life partners – including same sex partners – are entitled to a life partner pension and are treated the same as surviving spouses, provided that:         a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and       b) both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and         c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more join children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and         d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and         d) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.         The entitement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, negisters anew partnership, enters a new life partner's pension.         16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitied to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person opension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the conflued payment of salary in Juli or expiry of the entitlement to a disabilit	Employer:	Contract:
Date of birth:       Civil status:         The PensFlex Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following Order of Beneficiaries:         16.9       Non-registered life partners – including same sex partners – are entitled to a life partner pension and are treated the same as surviving spouses, provided that:         a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and       b both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and         c:       evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more pinit children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and         d:       a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and         e)       the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.         The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, ingisters a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or a sattlement lump sum becomes payable. The provisions of the spouse's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension receipent, no earlier however than at the end of the continueed paryment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement is datablished with the death of the insured person or pension receipent, no earlier however than at the end of the continueed paryment or salary in full orexpiry of the entillement to a disablify pensi	Surname:	First name:
The PensFlex Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following Order of Beneficiaries:         16.9       Non-registered life partners – including same sex partners – are entitled to a life partner pension and are treated the same as surviving spouses, provided that;         a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and       b) both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and         c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more point children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and         d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and         e) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.         The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or as settiment ium psum becomes payable. The provisions of the spouse's pension shall also apply to the life partner's pension.         16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pansion plena - will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person opension recipient, no eatiler however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension.         16.10 If an insured perso	Street, no.:	Postcode/Town:
<ul> <li>16.9 Non-registered life partners – including same sex partners – are entitled to a life partner pension and are treated the same as surviving spouses, provided that;</li> <li>a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and</li> <li>b) both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and</li> <li>c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more joint children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and</li> <li>d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and</li> <li>e) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.</li> <li>The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or at stationship with the death of the insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension.</li> <li>16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension + if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension.</li> <li>16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday.</li> <li>11 He child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no</li></ul>	Date of birth:	Civil status:
same as surviving spouses, provided that;  a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has been received and b) both partners are ummaried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more joint children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and d) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision. The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partner's pension. 16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlifer however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension. 16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner: Surname: First name: Street, no: Postcode/Town: Date of birth:  This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but hat/those at the date of death.	The PensFlex Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following Order of Beneficiaries:
<ul> <li>b) both partners are unmarried, are not living in a registered partnership and they are not related and</li> <li>c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more joint children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and</li> <li>d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and</li> <li>e) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.</li> <li>The entiltement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partner's pension.</li> <li>16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension receipent, no earlier however than at the end of the continued pary in the life partner's pension.</li> <li>16.11 The orphan's pension. The entiltement is established with the death of the insured person or pension receipent, and earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entiltement to a disability pension.</li> <li>16.11 The orphan's pension. The entiltement is established with the death of the insured person are prevented or exceeded this age, the entiltement to a later however than up to his 25th birthday.</li> <li>I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:</li> <li>Sumame:</li></ul>
<ul> <li>c) evidence is provided that the partner has lived in a permanent and exclusive relationship with the deceased insured person as a couple for at least live years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more joint children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and</li> <li>d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and</li> <li>e) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.</li> <li>The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partner's pension.</li> <li>16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension.</li> <li>16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarity gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday.</li> <li>I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:</li> <li>Surname:</li> <li>First name:</li> <li>Postcode/Town:</li> <li>Date of birth:</li> <li>Date of birth:</li> <li>Dis declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/hose at the date of deatt.</li> <li>This declaration of beneficial interest can</li></ul>	a) a written confirmation of beneficial interest has b	een received and
<ul> <li>insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more joint children in accordance with Art. 16.10 and 16.11 and</li> <li>d) a corresponding application was submitted to the Foundation no later than three months after the death of the insured person and</li> <li>e) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.</li> <li>The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partner's pension.</li> <li>16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension.</li> <li>16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday.</li> <li>I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:</li> <li>Surname:</li> <li>Signature:</li> <li>This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death.</li> <li>This declaration or beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective F</li></ul>
<ul> <li>insured person and</li> <li>e) the beneficiary on the date of death is not in receipt of a widow's or widower's pension or life partner pension from the occupational pension provision.</li> <li>The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or a settlement lump sum becomes payable. The provisions of the spouse's pension shall also apply to the life partner's pension.</li> <li>16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension pain – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension.</li> <li>16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday.</li> <li>I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:</li> <li>Surname:</li></ul>	insured person as a couple for at least five years, or if the partner was responsible for supporting one or more the occupational pension provision.         The entitlement to a life partner pension expires at the end of the month during which the beneficiary dies, marries, registers a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or a settlement lump sum becomes payable. The provisions of the spouse's pension shall also apply to the life partner's pension.         16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension.         16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday.         I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:         Sumame:       First name:         Street, no:       Postcode/Town:         Date of birth:         This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provisions. The insured person and yo dring the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death.	<li>d) a corresponding application was submitted to t insured person and</li>	he Foundation no later than three months after the death of the registers a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or a settlement lump sum becomes payable. The provisions of the spouse's pension shall also apply to the life partner's pension. 16.10 If an insured person dies, each child eligible for a pension - if provision has been made in the pension plan – will be entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension. 16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday. I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner: Surname: First name: Street, no.: Postcode/Town: Date of birth: Signature: This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death. This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.
entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability pension. 16.11 The orphan's pension is payable for the life of the child, no later however than when the child reaches his 20th birthday. If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday. I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner: Surname: Surname: Street, no.: Date of birth: Date of birth: Date of birth: Date of birth is used all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death. This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	registers a new partnership, enters a new life partnership or a settlement lump sum becomes payable. The provisions of
If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in education without being simultaneously primarily gainfully employed, no later however than up to his 25th birthday.  I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:  Surname:  Street, no.:  Date of birth:  Signature:  This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death.  This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	entitled to an orphan's pension. The entitlement is established with the death of the insured person or pension recipient, no earlier however than at the end of the continued payment of salary in full or expiry of the entitlement to a disability
Surname:       First name:         Street, no.:       Postcode/Town:         Date of birth:       Postcode/Town:         Signature:       Signature:         This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death.         This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	If the child has reached or exceeded this age, the entitlement to a pension still applies whilst the child continues in
Street, no.:       Postcode/Town:         Date of birth:	I favor the following person as my non-registered life partner:
Date of birth:         Signature:         This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death.         This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	Surname:	First name:
Signature: This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death. This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	Street, no.:	Postcode/Town:
This declaration revokes all declarations of beneficial interest issued previously to PensFlex within the context of occupational pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death. This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	Date of birth:
pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal provisions that is/are definitive for the validity of this declaration but that/those at the date of death. This declaration of beneficial interest can only be submitted by persons who are insured with the Collective Foundation PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	Signature:
PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension institution, their respective Pension Plan Regulations shall apply.	pension provision. The insured person acknowledges that it is not the current situation or the current regulatory and legal PensFlex and only during the corresponding period of insurance. In the event of a change to a new employer or a new pension

PensFlex Collective Foundation Kauffmannweg 17 6003 Lucerne T + 41 41 226 15 15 welcome@pensflex.ch www.pensflex.ch